INSTRUCTIONAL PRACTICE PRINCIPLES

The Wayland Alexander Elementary School Site Base Council is responsible for providing an environment for the planning and resolution of issues regarding instructional practices. Within this environment, all students will perform up to their potential and will be prepared for the future, the Wayland Alexander Elementary Site Base Council will make sure that students:

- Are actively involved in their own learning.
- Use writing as a way to learn.
- Have some ownership over what is being learned.
- Communicate with peers about what they are learning.
- At each grade level, will study all subjects in a way that shows them applications to real life.
- Are able to make connections among content areas.
- Are instructed in ways that help all students learn the Kentucky Core Academic Standards, which Kentucky has determined are essential for all students to know and be able to do.
